PLUS... TWO CHANCES TO WIN A TRIP TO LEGOLAND CALIFORNIA!
LOOK INSIDE!

The battle for the galaxy continues. From their cool control center, Rebel pilots fly amazing A-wing and blazing B-wing fighters against Imperial TIE fighters. But look out! Bounty hunter Boba Fett has joined forces with the dangerous Darth Vader. This dastardly duo is after Luke Skywalker and his friend Han Solo. The bad guys catch Han and freeze him in carbonite. Now, it's up to you and Luke to rescue Han and stop the evil Empire!

BOBA FETT

Boba Fett is the most mysterious bounty hunter in the galaxy. This fearsome tracker wears the mean, green armor of the ancient Mandalorian warriors, but Boba Fett has updated his armor with the latest high-tech gadgets. Fett always has something dangerous up his sleeve — like a laser blaster, mini flamethrower, or grappling hook, and his BlasTech EE-3 rifle never leaves his hand. After Vader freezes Han in carbonite, Fett uses his ship, Slave I, to deliver Han to Jabba the Hutt.

HAN SOLO

This crafty Corellian smuggler has escaped from many tough spots before, but in Bespin's Cloud City, Han's luck may have run out. Vader wants to freeze Luke Skywalker and take him to the Emperor. To test the carbon-freezing process on a human, Vader captures Han and freezes him first. Helplessly frozen in carbonite, Vader hands Han over to Boba Fett. The bounty hunter loads Han into the cargo compartment of Slave I and takes his frozen prisoner to Jabba the Hutt. In his desert palace on Tatooine, Jabba hangs Han on the wall like a picture!

HAN SOLO FROZEN IN CARBONITE

7104 DESERT SKIFF™

A desert skiff sails smoothly over the sand to the perilous Pit of Carkoon. Prisoners of Jabba the Hutt, Luke Skywalker and Han Solo are about to be fed to the Sarlacc. But wait! Luke somersaults off the plank and R2-D2 throws him his lightsaber. Can Luke and Han fight their way out of another scrape?

SAILS MOVE UP AND DOWN.

A-WING HAS FIRING BLASTER CANNONS AND MISSILES.

7134 A-WING FIGHTER™

This small, wedge-shaped fighter is one of the fastest ships in the galaxy. Because of its lightweight design, it can outrun any Imperial ship. Rebel pilots like to fly the A-wing in hit-and-run missions. Just before an attack, the ship jams the enemy's operating systems. Then the A-wing quickly flies in, blasts the target, and gets out. The problem with an A-wing is that it has no protective shields, so it has to be fast to escape!

7144 SLAVE I™

Boba Fett's ship is as mysterious and menacing as he is. Slave I is one of the most recognizable ships in the galaxy. Most creatures stay far away from Slave I when it's docked in their spaceport. The ship has plenty of room for cargo or captured Corellian smugglers frozen in carbonite.

7180 B-WING™ FIGHTER

At the Battle of Endor, B-wing fighters helped with the assault on the second Death Star. One of the Rebels' most heavily-armed starfighters, the B-wing is also one of its most unusual ships. It is really one long, flat wing with a rotating cockpit at one end and ion cannon at the other. As a B-wing prepares for battle, two airfoils with cannons fold out of the wing. The B-wing has a special gyro-stabilization system. During a battle, the cockpit remains steady while the rest of the ship rotates around it. Besides its three ion cannons, the B-wing has a laser cannon, two proton torpedo launchers and two small blaster cannons.

BUILD THE MOST REALISTIC DROIDS IN THE GALAXY!

STAR WARS
EPISODE I

Push in his nose to make him stand up.

These TECHNIC droids are so real looking, you'll be dodging laser blasts. The droids are challenging to build and fun to play with. Recreate your favorite scenes from The Phantom Menace. Or create your own exciting action scenes!

8000 PIT DROID™

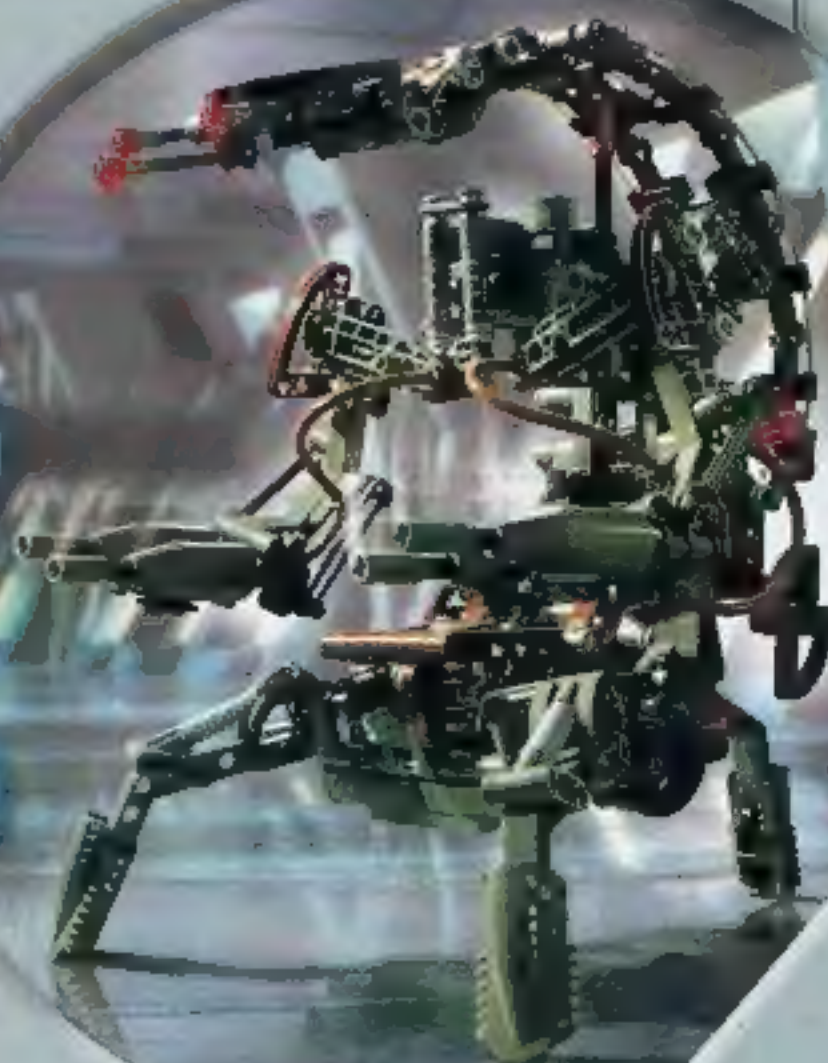

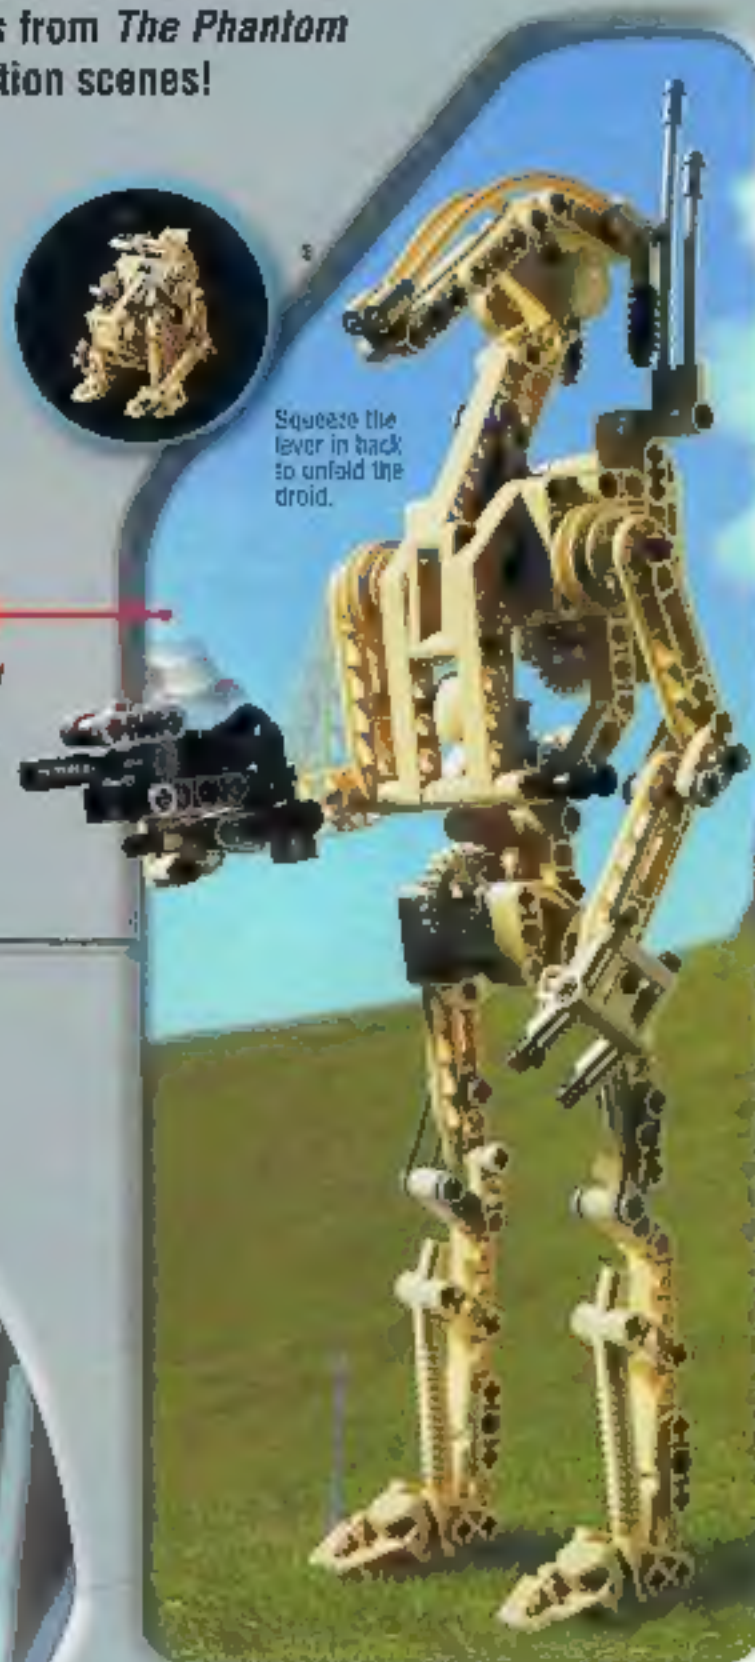

When your Podracer makes a stop for repairs, it's up to your pit droids to get you out quickly. If they want to! These handy droids are quick, strong, and mischievous. When they are finished with their work, just fold them up and shut them down!

8001 BATTLE DROID™

Battle droids are the galaxy's ultimate soldiers. They obey all orders without question. Swarms of droid armies are sent by the Trade Federation to take over the planet Naboo. Battle droids easily fold up into a closed position for transport, but can be ready for battle in seconds.

Squeeze the lever in back to unfold the droid.

8002 DESTROYER DROID™

Deadly destroyer droids roll in front of an enemy like harmless wheels. They quickly unfold into a powerful weapons platform. Instead of hands, destroyer droids have powerful twin blasters on each arm. They can generate their own defensive deflector shields.

LEGO TECHNIC

Rolls in front of its enemy, then opens up to become an awesome weapons platform.

the Adventures of the LEGO Maniac

DANGER IN THE DESERT

LUKE SKYWALKER AND HAN SOLO HAVE STOPPED THE EMPIRE TOO MANY TIMES. NOW, DARTH VADER STRIKES BACK. HE ORDERS HIS TROOPS, BOUNTY HUNTERS, AND EVERY NASTY CREATURE IN THE GALAXY TO FIND THEM. BOUNTY HUNTER BOBA FETT CAPTURES HAN AND FREEZES HIM IN CARBONITE.

BOBA FETT PUTS THE FROZEN PILOT INTO THE CARGO HOLD OF SLAVE I, HIS FEARSOME SPACE CRUISER.

BOBA FETT SPEEDS THROUGH SPACE TO DARTH VADER'S HEADQUARTERS.

LUKE SKYWALKER SENSES THAT HAN IS IN TROUBLE. HE TAKES OFF IN HIS SUPER SPEEDY A-WING FIGHTER TO FIND HIS FRIEND.

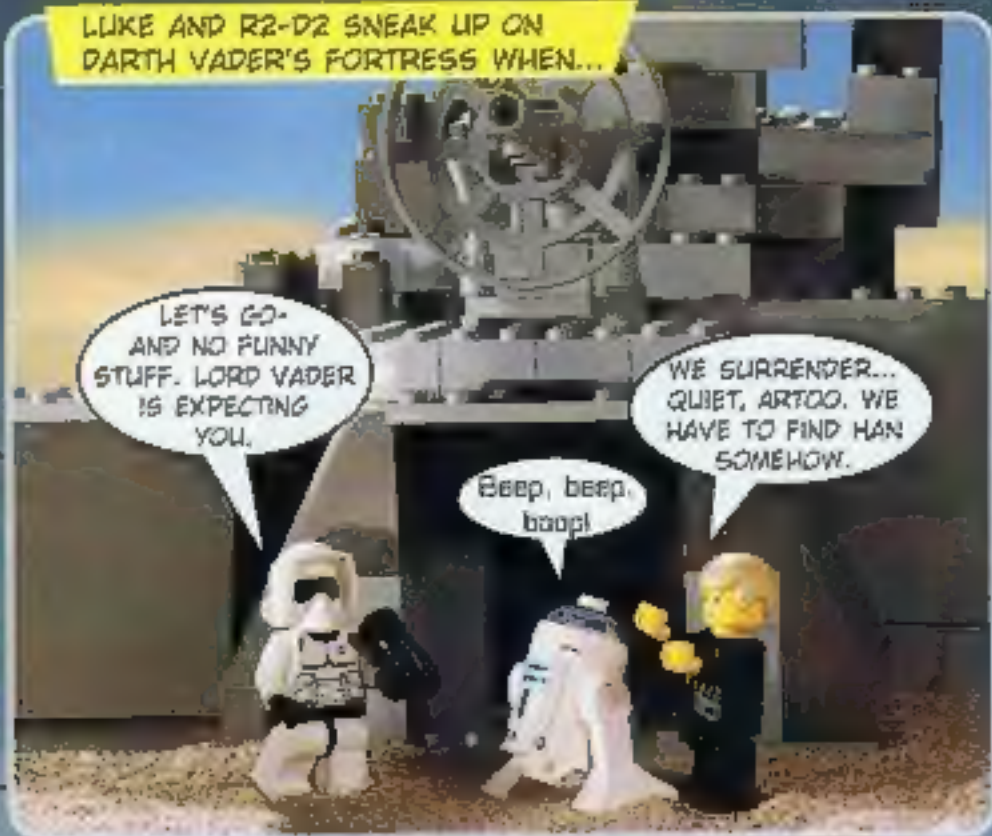

I'LL BE THERE WITH MY B-WING!

INSIDE A DESERT FORTRESS ON TATOOINE, DARTH VADER SETS A TRAP FOR LUKE.

LUKE AND R2-D2 SNEAK UP ON DARTH VADER'S FORTRESS WHEN...

DARTH VADER HAS HAN UNFROZEN, BUT HAN CANNOT SEE. HE AND LUKE ARE BROUGHT TO VADER.

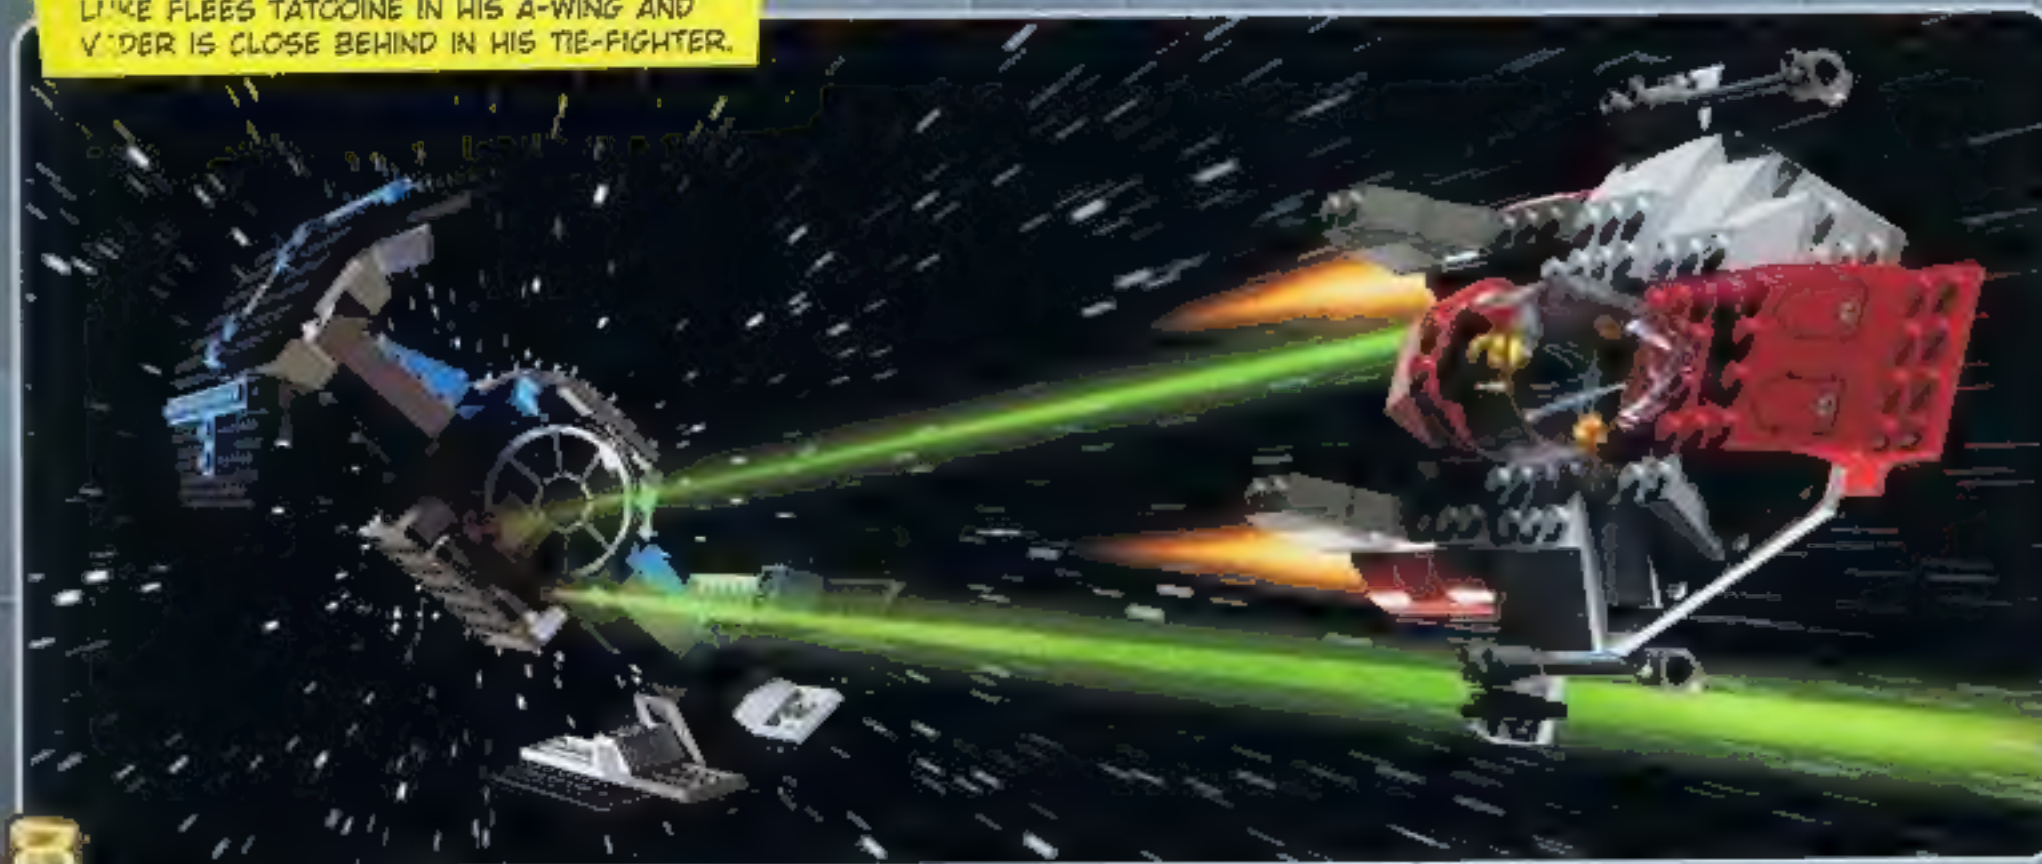

IN SAND-SKIMMING DESERT SKIFFS, DARTH VADER AND BOBA FETT TAKE THEIR PRISONERS TO THE PIT OF CARKOON, WHERE THE HUGE SARLACC LIVES. HAN'S SIGHT STARTS TO GET BETTER.

LUKE FLEES TATOOINE IN HIS A-WING AND VADER IS CLOSE BEHIND IN HIS TIE-FIGHTER.

THE MANIAC IS STILL ON TATOOINE MAKING A FEW QUICK ADJUSTMENTS TO HIS B-WING BEFORE BATTLE.

WITHOUT SHIELDS, THE A-WINGS ARE TOAST. LET'S BUILD LIKE CRAZY, ARTOO, AND GIVE VADER A BIG B-WING SURPRISE!

THESE EXTRA WINGS AND LASER CANNONS SHOULD DO THE TRICK!

Beep, hoop, BEEP!

BOBA FETT USES HIS JETPACK TO ESCAPE FROM THE PIT OF CARKOON.

THAT CREATURE SLIMED MY ARMOR. SOLO WILL PAY!

WITH ALL ITS LASER CANNONS BLAZING, THE MANIAC'S BIGGER, BETTER B-WING CHASES AWAY DARTH VADER'S TINY TIE FIGHTER.

SEE YOU LATER, VADER!

NEXT TIME I WILL HAVE THEM ALL FROZEN IN CARBONITE!

LOOKS LIKE THIS ADVENTURE WILL CONTINUE. CATCH THE MILLENNIUM FALCON LATER THIS YEAR!

YOU'LL WISH YOU STAYED IN THE PIT WHEN I GET YOU, FETT!

TO BE CONTINUED!

RELIVE THE ADVENTURE!

The planet Naboo is being threatened by the terrible Trade Federation. Battle droid armies have been sent to take over the planet. There's only one way to stop these fierce Trade Federation forces. You have to get the Naboo people and the Gungans to work together to save their planet!

Bring the action home!

7124 FLASH SPEEDER™

Aerodynamic Flash speeders cruise through the streets of Theed, avoiding Trade Federation destroyer droids and battle droids. These speeders are favorites of Queen Amidala's Naboo Royal Security Forces.

7115 GUNGAN PATROL™

The Gungans live in the underwater city of Otoh Gunga. These amazing amphibians know that their help is needed on the surface. So Gungan patrols search the Naboo swamps and hills for battle droids.

FINAL

ON MARS, IT'S -238 DEGREES. MAYBE YOU'D BETTER SEND A ROBOT.

Mars is a cool place to visit, about -238° F in winter, but who wants to live there? The temperatures are so extreme that there's as much as a 30° difference in the temperature around your head from the temperature around your feet! But even if you still wanted to live there, it would take you over one Earth year just to fly there, so why not send a robot?

If you're already using the Robotics Invention System, all you need to do is plug the Mars Exploration CD-ROM into your computer and choose an exploration mission. Then, build an all-terrain rover with help from the new Constructopedia and over 100 additional LEGO pieces from the Mars Exploration Expansion Set.

For more information about this awesome expansion set you don't have to go to Mars, just www.legomindstorms.com.

Program your rover for exploration exercises like maneuvering on hostile Martian terrain and seeking out light beacons. Then activate your program from your computer and watch your rover explore.

Avoid mission disasters by overriding programs with real time remote control of your rover from the Mission Control Screen on your computer. When your mission is complete, log your results electronically and try another mission!

9736 Mars Exploration Expansion Set

Take your robotic rovers on interactive missions to Mars. Set includes CD-ROM, building instructions, and more than 100 LEGO pieces.

9747 Robotic Invention System

Build robots and use your computer to program them to do what you want!
